

My husband's blood sugar was very high, it reached 570 and this caused him a mild stroke which caused his 10 days hospitalization. He was treated by Dr. Farahmand. In 4 visits and treatments given by Dr. Farahmand, his blood sugar was normalized for the next 3 years. His next visit today, May 20, 2004 had something to do with his liver and not his blood sugar.